

CURRICULUM ADAPTATION DOCUMENT PROPOSAL

Topic: Rural and urban world in the formation of the European identity
Course: Secondary Education and High School
Didactic Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To explain the current characteristics of rural and urban societies and how they evolved from Prehistory to Contemporary ages. - To discuss what the inequalities between urban and rural worlds are and the conflicts caused. - To propose new ways to bring closer the rural and the urban world in Europe.
Contents: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Historical evolution of cities and peasant communities. - Social and economical differences between rural and urban world. - Peasantry and bourgeois characteristics in the European identity. - Marginalities, conflicts and inequalities among the rural and urban world.
Competences – Skills: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To research and select information from primary and secondary resources. - To investigate in teams to produce knowledge. - To communicate the contents learned using different tools. - To collaborate with local and regional governments to preserve rural and urban heritage. - To participate as citizens to reduce the social and economical inequalities between urban and rural world.

Disclaimer

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission. This publication reflects the views only of the author, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

